CONN BROTHERS

Lancaster, Ky.

Hon. Ollie M. James.

Will be in Lancaster, Friday June the 9th, and will speak at the Court House at 2 o'clock P. M. He is being greeted in every county in the state, where he goes to talk with the people about the nomination for United States Senator, with large enthusiastic crowds of democrats. Mr. James is one of the most entertaining stump speakers in the party. His record in Congress as represented from the First Congressional District, shows unceasing effort to bring into supremacy democratic ideals, and he is constantly working for the interest of the masses of the people. As a party worker, his services have been at the disposal of the organization for many years, and wherever he has been sent his power and brilliancy on the stump has left an enthusiastic and determined democracy. Mr. James is a democrat to the core, of the progressive type, and has supporting him in the contest for the democratic senatorial nomination both the young democracy and the progressive democracy of the State. He is now just in the full vigor of young manhood and is in every way fully equipped and prepared for a seat in United States Senate.

He will receive a royal welcome from a large and admiring crowd of democrats in Garrard County on Friday, who will hear him at the Court house and we think give him a large majority of the votes cast in the senatorial primary in this county on July the first.

You can see the latest and best pictures and hear good music at the new Opera House. 5-19-31

The unusually hot weather during the month of May will cause an early harvest this year. Both rye and wheat are heading out and ripening rapidly and the prospects are for harvest at least two weeks earlier than usual.

Will Celebrate The Glorious 4th.

The local lodge of Odd Fellows is preparing to celebrate the 4th of July with a big old fashioned picnic at the Fair Grounds. A large number of invitations have been sent out, there will be a basket dinner, band of music, red lemonade and abundance of oratory.

Improves His Property.

The old Cunningham property on Depot street which was recently purchased by Mr. Davis the butcher, has been moved back off the street, remodeled, painted, an addition built and turned into quite a nice residence, and is an ornament to that section of the town.

Hot Weather.

The mercury climbed up close to the 100 mark Sunday and notwithstanding a good breeze was stirring the heat was almost unbearable. Did you ever notice how a glance at the thermometer effects one, you may be perfectly comfortable and take a look at the mercury and if it should happen to register up in the warm region you will immediately begin perspiring, looking for cooling drinks and complaining of the heat.

Good Man Announces.

In this issue of the paper will be found the announcement of Mr. Ashby Arnold for sheriff of Garrard county subject to the action of the democratic party. Mr. Arnold has long been a true and loyal democrat and has done much for the success of democracy in this county. He is a young man and one that would do his duty if elected to this office. He has many friends in all parts of the county, having lived here all his life, who will push his candidacy to the end.

Don't Need Him Here.

U. S. Marshal Coleman of Somerset is one of the best officers in the employ of Uncle Sam and is a terror to evil doers. At present Mr. Coleman is busying himself with assisting in clearing Danville of its illicit liquor vendors, and he is making the path of that class of criminals one of thorns. We are glad to say that we are not in need of Mr. Coleman's services along that line in Lancaster, for the keepers of blind tigers are few and far between here, and even if one does spring into existence, he is not allowed to play his trade long before he is spotted by the vigilant officers and is soon landed on the rock pile with a good stiff fine and sentence to teach him that the way of the transgressor is hard.

Press Association Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Kentucky Press Association will be held this year at Cerulean Springs, June 19th to 23rd, and Editor John Lawrence of the Cadiz Record, who is on the ground, says it is to be the greatest meeting ever held by the press boys. They will all be there in full force with their wives, sweethearts and families and four days of solid enjoyment is in store for them. Cerulean Springs is on the Illinois Central Rail Road between Hopkinsville and Princeton, and is one of the most picturesque spots in the state, and is an ideal place for the holding of the state meeting.

Glad Twice.

The hearts of the majority of our people were made glad twice by the Street Fair, once when it came and again when it left. Large crowds attended during the last three afternoons and evenings of its stay, but the management claim that they just about broke even on their weeks stay here.

Street Fairs are not to be desired every year, but once in a great while they prove a source of pleasure and relaxation to the people of rural communities where the opportunities for seeing anything of the kind are few and far between, and we think that Lancaster and Garrard county people enjoyed the last one to the fullest extent.

Splendid order was preserved during the stay of the Carnival, only one arrest being made during their stay, that being a negro for disorderly conduct. The crowds while large were not boisterous and very little drunkenness was observed.

The Carnival company was remarkably free from the tin horn gamblers and petty thieves which usually follow in the wake of circuses and Street Fair companies.

Improvement At Water Works.

The City Council has purchased a car of fine white gravel and will immediately tear out all of the old filler of the water works filter and use this gravel for filtering.

There is an abundant supply of pure water at the lake which will be amply sufficient to carry us through the Summer, provided care is taken in using it. The recent severely hot weather has cut down the supply considerably and as it is more than probable that we will not have any heavy rains now before Fall, at least not sufficient to increase the water supply, it would be well to exercise judgment in the use of the water. In sprinkling do not use more than is absolutely necessary, and do not waste the water in any other manner. It is far better to begin the exercise of proper care in this regard now, than to be extravagant with it and then when the supply becomes diminished, have to be cut off from water for other than strictly domestic purposes. With the exercise of proper judgment and with the supply now on hand it will not be necessary to adopt such measures.

Mrs. Pattie Gill Sick.

Mrs. Pattie D. Gill suffered a slight cerebral hemorrhage on Monday, which for a time occasioned her family and host of friends considerable anxiety; however she rallied quickly and is reported as being able to be up, and her complete recovery is assured.

Undergoes Operation.

Mrs. L. M. Schoolfield of Forman Ark. underwent a serious operation at the Lancaster hospital on Tuesday morning, she stood the operation well and is progressing as well as could be expected. Mr. Schoolfield is at the bedside of his wife. Mrs. Schoolfield is a niece of Capt. I. M. Myers who she was visiting when she was taken ill.

Better Streets.

The town is busy trying to make better streets for the people and in a short time we will have them all in good condition. The county is furnishing the machinery and at present Danville street is being fixed up. After this street is in good condition, the force will go to work on Richmond street and then on Lexington street and so on until the town has good streets all over it.

It's Against The Law.

It is not generally known that according to the Kentucky Statutes it is a heavy fine to catch for the purpose of placing in a cage a mocking bird, or red bird. Many people have these woodland songsters in cages about the house, and are not aware that the new laws of the state forbid such being a captive. The statute, which is section 2946 reads as follows: "No person shall at any time catch, kill or pursue with such intent or have in possession after same has been caught or killed any thrush, mocking bird, meadow lark finch, martin, swallow, woodpecker, flicker, oriole, red-bird, tanager, catbird bluebird." There is a move through the state to stop the capture as well as killing of these birds.

The Proposed Electric Line.

Mr. Desha Breckinridge, who has been elected a director in the newly organized Electric company which is to build, or not to build as the case may be, the extension of the car line from Nicholasville, has received recently two letters in regard to the proposed extension, which he published in full with editorial comment in the Lexington Herald, of which paper he is the able editor.

The letters were from able men. Hon. J. A. Sullivan of Richmond and Hon. W. W. Stephenson of Harrodsburg. Each letter seeks to convince Mr. Breckinridge that a route through Madison or Mercer county respectively would be infinitely more plausible than the one we advocate. The gentlemen each seem to indicate in their letters that Lancaster is the objective point of the extension, but they seek to show that it could be reached more cheaply and more profitably to the promoters by coming through their county to get to Lancaster.

All right gentlemen we are not seeking to refute your statements, neither do we object to you and each of you getting this road, but if there is any converting to be done, we want it to be FROM and not TO Lancaster. We have the advantage in the matter in that "we saw it first," and we shall leave no stone unturned and spare no effort, when the proper time comes, to convince the promoters of the road, that from Nicholasville to Lancaster over the Lexington turnpike is THE ONLY WAY, then if Mr. Sullivan for Richmond or Mr. Stephenson for Harrodsburg want the road extended to their towns, why we shall be more than glad to lend every effort in our power to assist them in securing it from this point.

As for the advantage to be derived by the railroad people in choosing any specific route, we are of the opinion that we can offer them far more valuable inducements than either of the routes suggested by the gentlemen. In the first place they will travel over a splendidly graded road bed, not excelled in the state, over which the right-of-way is already assured, traversing a territory that is as yet traversed by no other steam or electric railroad, a territory unsurpassed for the fertility of its soil by any locality in the state, inhabited by a people who are anxious to see the extension built, looking forward eagerly to the time when they may have this means of marketing the product of their farms, and also as a means of transportation for themselves and their families to and from the metropolis of the Blue Grass, Lexington.

The Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Co., which firm owns and operates two of the largest plants in the state at Hickman, Ky., on the route proposed by us, would give to the prospective extension more freight in car loads than either the city of Harrodsburg or Richmond. This freight is now transported to Nicholasville by wagon and the Company is anxious that the road be built as we suggest.

As for the railroad connections to be made, they are as good over this route as either of the other suggested; the Traction Company, already has connection with the Southern and by coming here they would make connection with the K. C. branch of the L & N and also be within nine miles of Knoxville branch of the L & N, which would afford them a direct outlet to the Seaboard and the entire south.

This road will be built with an eye for the future when there will be a direct electric line from the great Lakes to the Gulf, and this is the direct line as well as the most plausible one. Nor is this all the advantages which we can offer, we have other things which are now before the traction people, and which are far superior to anything set forth in this article, and far excel anything which could possibly be offered by any other route, but which we are not at liberty to state at the present time.

Mr. Stephenson advances the beautiful scenery about Brooklyn bridge as one potent reason why the line should come from Nicholasville through Mercer, we do not think that this road would be constructed as a scenic railway, but if the promoters should assume that view point, we are of the opinion that no more beautiful scenery may be found along the Kentucky river than along the turnpike which skirts the cliffs in the vicinity of Hickman.

As for Mr. Stephenson's theory as to the Brooklyn bridge being utilized for the traction line, with all due deference to his views, we doubt very much if this is plausible, it takes a far more substantial structure to support the traffic of a railroad such as this line would require, than it does to accommodate the ordinary foot and horse passengers, for which the Brooklyn bridge was constructed.

In any event, were the road to take the route suggested by Mr. Stephenson, it would be necessary to construct a bridge over Dix river before they could get out of Harrodsburg, either to Danville or Lancaster.

As for the route proposed by Mr. Sullivan, investigation already made shows that this would involve the construction of the most costly bridge over Kentucky river yet suggested, then after leaving Richmond to get to Lancaster there would have to be constructed bridges over both Silver Creek and Paint Lick. After viewing the situation from every point we feel confident that when the promoters of the Traction company together with their engineers come to look over the various routes suggested and proposed, which will be at an early day, that they will find the route from Nicholasville to Lancaster far superior to any of the others, and that at no very far distant time we shall have the pleasure of having direct connection with Lexington by the nearest and best possible route.

Only a few more weeks left until the great democratic primary; have you made up your mind as to who you will cast your vote for? If you have not then get busy at once and study the candidates and cast your vote for the best man. Of course there is no doubt but that practically every man, woman and child in Garrard County are for McCreary for Governor, and the voters will prove this fact on July 1st. Now remember that there are other offices and that they are very important ones and good men should be selected to fill them, so be on hand at the polls on July 1st, and let's have a good clean set of candidates elected.

Mexico will have her presidential election some time in the near future and the campaign promises to be a warm one. Madero is in Mexico city, and General Reyes has been recalled from Europe to assist in the re-establishment of peace and promises to be a formidable rival to Madero for the highest office within the gift of the people. The Catholics will in all probability put forth a candidate who will be a strong factor in the race. The late president Diaz always strongly opposed the Catholic element, holding that their immense wealth and strength was a menace to the country.

The Canal Commission is preparing to fortify the big ditch against any possible intrusion, either from crands in time of peace or from foreign countries in time of war. A small army will be maintained, fortifications built and every possible precaution taken to insure that the big undertaking which cost the United States so much money, comes to no harm after its completion.

The case of Senator Lorimer will be reopened, and another investigation to be made as to whether or not he secured his seat in the upper house by unfair means. A subcommittee consisting of four democratic and four republican senators has been appointed to conduct the investigation.

Col. Joseph Garrard, a Kentuckian commanding at Fort Myer Va., has been severely reprimanded by the President for refusing to approve the papers of a soldiers asking to take the examination to become a commissioned officer because of the fact that the soldier was of Jewish parentage.

Flower Mission.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will observe Flower Mission day Saturday. The members are requested to bring their flowers to head quarters by 1:30 p. m.

Bible School Convention.

The Bible Schools of the Christian church will hold their annual county convention at the Sunday School Chapel at Hyattsville on June 14th, Beginning at 9:30 o'clock a. m.

Welcome Rain.

Rain which will be worth thousands of dollars to the county fell Tuesday afternoon and evening. In the Bryantsville and Hickman section of the county it was the heaviest in months, and throughout the entire county it was sufficient to make a tobacco season.

Pollard-Speaks.

At the Baptist parsonage in Lancaster, Ky., on the first of June the rites of matrimony were very quietly solemnized between Mr. Ben Pollard and Miss Minerva Speaks, Rev. O. P. Bush officiating.

The bride and groom were reared in this County but will make their home in Illinois. To their future home they shall take the well wishes of their many friends.

Prohibitionists Nominate Ticket.

The Prohibition convention in Lexington nominated the following candidates for state offices.

Governor, the Rev. J. D. Reed, Paintsville; Lieutenant Governor Prof. M. T. Moore, Wilmore; Secretary of State, C. A. Singer, Louisville; State Auditor, H. T. D. Wright, Louisville; State Treasurer, W. M. Lowen, Frankfort; Superintendent of Public Instruction, J. M. Guiliams, Louisville; Commissioner of Agriculture, A. W. Carpenter, Moreland.

A Peculiar Incident.

'Squire Ray, a member of the Garrard county Fiscal Court, tells the Record that his son Dan Ray set a steel trap to catch rats which were infesting the premises. One morning upon going to examine his trap he discovered to his surprise that he had caught a rat by the tail and a frog by the leg both at the same fall of the trap.

A member of the Fiscal court is not a person whose veracity can be doubted, and Squire Ray is above reproach in that particular and we are willing to accept this incident without question, so far as we are personally concerned, but we very much fear there are some people who will have been shown in regard to the matter.

Give Him Your Subscription.

The Record has secured the services of Mr. H. M. Keefer, a newspaper solicitor of experience, who will canvass the county and endeavor to increase the subscription list of this paper to the size of that of the Courier Journal. When the gentleman calls upon you, if you are not a subscriber to The Record, your quickest method of getting rid of him will be to allow him to take your name and place it on our list.

Now is the time to get the Record, the election is near at hand and we propose to keep you posted on the political situation both at home and abroad. We are putting forth every effort to get out a good paper and your patronage will prove an encouragement.

Capt. Thomas Helm Again On Duty.

Capt. Thomas Helm of Danville who was recently painfully injured by being caught between two cars in the B & C yards at that place, is again able to be on duty as an officer for the railroad. On last Sunday he arrested two men, one white one colored, on a Cincinnati excursion train and turned them over to officers at Lexington, charging them with breach of the peace. The alleged offense took place in Scott county and they will be taken to Georgetown for trial.

This is the very kind of work that has long been needed on Sunday excursion trains, and a few men with the nerve and determination of Thomas Helm will soon break up the habit of a lot of rowdies riding these trains and making life miserable for every peaceable citizen who chances to be aboard.

Fish To Be Protected.

The following article from the Danville Advocate would indicate that there is a move on foot to stop the indiscriminate taking of fish from Dix River in every imaginable way. This will indeed be a commendable undertaking and one which Garrard county fishermen will heartily endorse and render assistance.

"There are still many people left in these parts who can remember the time when they could seine a bucket of minnows and his themselves to either Dix river or the Hanging Fork and indulge in a day's sport that was sport; when, with very little exertion, they could string a dozen smallmouth black bass weighing from two to four or five pounds each in less time than it takes now to get one 'nibble,' and this state of case is attributable to the fact that this was before the day of the dynamiter. And if the means are found—which they will be—of eliminating these gentry from the sphere of action for a year or two then these streams, which were made ideal by nature, will again team with game fish and the true disciples of old Sir Isaac Walton can again rise up and call him blessed."

The Farm Life.

(By Will G. McKinney.)

There is no doubt but the farm life is the happiest, purest and most healthy to live. The farmers as a general rule are regular in their habits, they have a certain time to eat and sleep and it is natural to think that they are longer lived, and more healthy than any other class. They are independent and know that everything comes from the earth. Large and small cities are dependent on the tillers of the soil for their food and raiment.

These "sons of toil" are mostly honest, and mostly upright and make the most sincere Christians. They may not dress in the latest style or fashion, but they are "diamonds in the rough." Bobby Burns says he may be clad in homespun clothes, but he is a man for all that. When they donate for a charitable purpose, they do not only give with their hands, but their hearts are included in the good cause. When they converse their words come from their hearts and not from their lips altogether; they labor from early dawn to late twilight to make a livelihood for the families.

They are somewhat to be pitied as they are almost in the hands of the trust, and have to sell and buy their prices. Yet after all their ups and downs they are said to be the most independent class of workmen, as they are their own bosses, and live up to what the good book says: They make their living by the sweat of their brow. When the United States or Uncle Sam wants a good, pure young man, he prefers one from a rural district, for a soldier as he is apt to be temperate and have good habits. Country boys have not been demoralized by living in an immoral city.

Everything that grows that is bred or born comes from God's footstool, or mother earth's bosom. We were placed here as Adam and Eve were in the garden of Eden, to be tried, and if we live up to the commandments then we will be rewarded for our good works and behavior in the upper kingdom.

Government Man Here.

Mr. H. O. Moore an inspector representing the U. S. Bureau of Animal Industry has been here the last few days with Col. A. D. Leavell, assisting in the inspection of Garrard county sheep. Eager For Double Duty.

A manufacturer in the west of England, anxious that his hands should keep Christmas in a proper spirit, told them that if they went to church on that day they should receive their wages just the same as if they had been at work. "We're willin' to attend church," said the spokesman, "and if ye can see yer way to payin' us overtime we're willin' to attend the Methodist chapel in the evenin'."

Convention Monday, June 12th.

The democrats of Garrard county will hold a convention at the Court House, Monday June 12th, to select delegates to represent Garrard county at the convention in Louisville to select a democratic nominee for Railroad commissioner in this district. We are always opposed to conventions, believing that the primary is the only proper way to select party nominees, and the calling of the convention was a great mistake when we were to have a primary on July 1st. It is rumored that this convention was lobbied through the committee by a certain faction of democrats in the district, and that they had in mind that at this time the people would be very busy. The duties of the Railroad Commission are very important to the people of the state, therefore the man nominated at Louisville should be a good one and one that would be on the lookout for the best interests of the people. You should attend the convention at the court house on the above date and send good men to Louisville, men that would select a man that is in every sense of the word capable and has the best interest of the State and people at heart.

The sale of the herd of Duroc Jersey cows belonging to Messrs. R. J. H. Spurr and H. D. The report of the Commissioner of Agriculture for the month of May says that unless we have rain in the near future crops of all kinds will fall from 60 to 75 per cent below that of last year; his report on the fruit crop for the state is also discouraging, giving the average for the state as 66 per cent.

The management of the Elmendorf Stock Farm of Lexington purchased on Decoration day at the Cooper sale in Cooperstown Pa. fifteen head of high grade registered Jersey milk stock. Messrs. Hudson, Davis & Cogar during the past few weeks have purchased 500 acres of growing hemp from various Boyle county farmers. The amount purchased represents almost the total acreage of the county. The next best price was $650 for the best 2-year-old bull, Music Master, an imported son of Bandmaster, one of the best bulls in England, and E. S. Lisle paid $450 for Lily Lind, and $300 for the young bull, His Lordship.

A Charming Woman.
 is one who is lovely in face, form, mind and temper. But its hard for a woman to be charming without health. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate the Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion and perfect health. Try them. 50c at R. E. Helping His Friend.
 "An Irish cab driver came into the depot the other night," said the ticket agent, "and asked me, how soon the next train came in. I told him, and he said thank you and went away. In about five minutes he came back with the same question.
 "I told you not more than five minutes ago," I said.
 "I know it," he answered cheerfully. "But it's not me that wants to know the time. It's a friend of mine outside that has to watch his horses an' can't come in an' ask yez himself."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Not on Earth.
 A life insurance agent met an easy looking individual the other day, and after a few preliminary remarks about the weather out came the well known little black book.
 "Let me see," remarked the agent, turning the leaves of the book. "Your age is so and so, and I can fix you up with the real thing at 50 cents a week. The policy becomes operative immediately, and one day after your death our company will pay you $1,000. It is!"
 "Hold on just a minute," smilingly interjected the victim. "Where in the deuce is the paymaster of your company located?"—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Lancaster People Have Good Reason for Complete Reliance.

Do you know how—
 To find quick relief from backache;
 To correct distressing urinary ills;
 To assist sick kidneys?
 There's one way—your neighbors know—
 Have used Doan's Kidney Pills;
 Have proved their worth in many tests.
 Here's Lancaster testimony.
 George Wright, Stanford St., Lancaster, Ky., says: "I have never known of a better kidney remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills. Last fall my back ached a great deal and my kidneys were badly disordered, the kidney secretions being scanty and painful in passage. I fortunately had Doan's Kidney Pills brought to my attention and getting a box at Frisbie's Drug Store, I began their use. They relieved me promptly and in return for the benefit I received, I am willing that my name should be used in recommending them. My advice to all sufferers from kidney trouble is to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

Hanna's Green Seal

"The Made-to-Wear Paint"

If you expect to do any painting, you are interested—you should be—in the quality of the paint to be used.

In any given job of painting, labor represents practically two-thirds, material one-third the cost.

It stands to reason that with so much expense in labor, the enduring quality of the paint is all important.

Why have the painting done unless the protection and durability of the job is sought?

How is one to determine the true value and obtain paint that may be depended upon for durability?

HANNA'S GREEN SEAL PAINT IS NOT A SECRET. This paint has the printed formula on every package.

The makers have confidence and take pride in the quality and tell the public the composition of the paint.

IS THIS OF ANY VALUE TO YOU? IT OUGHT TO BE.

FOR SALE BY
